Educación en las Américas:
Saberes y Perspectivas

May 31 and June 1, 2016
Immediately following LASA
Teachers College, Columbia University
525 W 120th St, New York, New York

Highlighting the unique contributions of scholarship in Latin America, this conference supports the broadening of hemispheric dialogue to include voices that are seldom heard in English-language publications.

Destacando las contribuciones de la producción académica latinoamericana, esta conferencia busca ampliar el diálogo hemisférico para incluir voces con poca presencia en las publicaciones de habla inglesa.

Please RSVP through the website: eakp.weebly.com
Seating will be limited.
Presentations will be held in English and Spanish.

To request disability-related accommodations contact OASID at oasid@tc.edu, (212) 678-3489, (212) 678-3853T117, (646) 755-3144 video phone, as early as possible.

Co-sponsored by the Vice President's Office for Diversity and Community Affairs at Teachers College

Eric Velásquez: Children's Book Author and Illustrator

The Bilingual/Bicultural Education Program invites you to join us for an interactive discussion with Eric Velásquez whose work, as a son from Afro-Puerto Rican parents, offers insights into the lives of families from the Spanish Harlem. His stories invite us to build solidarity within Black and Latino communities. Don't miss this unique opportunity to hear also about his work as an artist and illustrator.

When: Tuesday, March 1, 2016
Where: Teachers College, Zankel Building 125
Time: 7:00PM - 9:00PM

Sponsored by the K-12 Outreach Program at the Institute of Latin American Studies. Organized by Dr. Carmen Martínez Roldán as part of the A&HB 4029 Latino Children's Literature & Literacies Seminar
